Churchill Calls For U.N. Report On Forces

Crash—Upstairs And Down

Result of a spectacular midair collision of two light airplanes over South Gate, Calif., is shown here as one of planes rests against street curb, a tangled wreck, after crashing into street and striking automobile at right. Pilot, Lola Elain Maudlin, died in the 'smash-up' and W. T. Eastman, who was entering car, received arm injuries.

Canada Urges U.N. To Put Teeth Into Security Force; Asks Nations Disarm

NEW YORK (CP)—Canada today urged the United Nations speedily to equip the Security Council with the power to enforce "proper decisions" to maintain world peace and in the same breath called for world-wide armaments reduction "so that the productive capacity of the world thus conserved may be used for improving the living conditions of all peoples."

Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, leader of the Canadian delegation to the U.N. General Assembly, told the representatives of the 51 United Nations the assembly's accomplishments had been "impressive," but added tartly: "But it is more important that this Assembly take steps to remedy the shortcomings of the United Nations than derive too great satisfaction from what we have been able to accomplish."

MAKES TALK BRIEF

Canada has put before the Assembly a motion that speeches be limited to 10 minutes. As a result, Mr. St. Laurent today kept his short, making up in punch what it lacked in length. In addition to urging the Security Council and armaments reduction, he called, in sharp phrases, for:

1. Codification of international law, with all members of the U.N. accepting the compulsory jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice "with a minimum of reservations."
2. Economy in operation of the United Nations.
3. No unnecessary multiplication of internal organizations, conferences, councils and commissions.
4. Co-operation among U.N. members so that "we produce a

Abbott Arrives Aboard Warship

Defence Minister Douglas C. Abbott, on an inspection and speaking tour of the west, arrived in Victoria from Vancouver at 2.30 this afternoon.

Mr. Abbott came directly to Victoria from Vancouver. He came here aboard the Canadian destroyer Crescent which docked at the naval dockyard.

This evening at 6.15 Mr. Abbott will be guest of the Laurier Club at Terry's.

TCA Reduces Fare On Seattle Route

A reduction of nearly $1 in the one-way fare on the Trans-Canada Airlines service from Victoria to Seattle and a conforming reduction in the return fare was announced today by R. L. Williams, city traffic manager here for TCA.

The new single fare will be $5.70, instead of the originally scheduled $6.50. The return fare is reduced from $11.70 to $10.25.

The reduction in fare on the new service, which will be inaugurated at 8.55 Friday morning when the first passenger flight goes out from Patricia Bay, is a result of the change in route which shortens the distance of the flight to Seattle, Mr. Williams said.

U.S. Government Not Surrendering To Miners' Union

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite President Truman's press conference dictum that there will be no coal strike, Interior Secretary J. A. Krug made it clear today that the United States government has not surrendered to John L. Lewis on his demand for a new coal contract.

By implication, Mr. Lewis has threatened a walkout Nov. 1 by his 400,000 soft coal miners.

A spokesman for Mr. Krug, who had telegraphed Lewis Sunday arranging the meeting for Friday, was asked:

"Does that telegram mean the government will reopen the coal contract?" a reporter asked.

"It does not say that," the spokesman replied.

Asked whether Mr. Lewis was correct in interpreting the telegram as compliance with the union leader's Oct. 21 letter demanding reopening of the contract, the spokesman answered: "The Secretary's communication is a compliance only with Mr. Lewis' request for a meeting."

Previously, Mr. Truman's no-strike announcement had been taken as indicating the government might be ready to talk new contract terms—as demanded by Lewis.

The union agreed Monday to negotiate with the government under the terms of the old pact which went into effect last May 29 after Mr. Krug had seized strike-paralyzed soft coal mines.

Prank Costs Life

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP)—Two boys stole a float plane today for a joy ride that ended in death for one of them and a narrow escape from the waters of the Columbia River for the other.

Robert Lewis Cummings, 7, and Leonard Cummings, 12, brothers, took the plane from a moorage east of Vancouver shipyard, started the engine and taxied downstream. diagonally for the Oregon shore.

One hundred yards out it capsize. A Coast Guard cutter arrived in a few minutes to pull Robert from the wreckage. Leonard had disappeared.

B.C. Argues For Continuance Of Appeals To Privy Council

LONDON (CP)—British Columbia would not have entered into union with Canada in 1871 if the right of appeal to the Privy Council from provincial courts could have been taken away by the federal government of Canada, Wilfred Barton, K.C., of London, representing the Attorney-General of British Columbia, today told the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

He told the seven law lords headed by Baron Jowitt, Lord Chancellor, that the province regarded the right of appeal outside Canada as a "bulwark against oppression" and as a "precaution against misbehavior by courts or government."

Frank Gahan, also of London, submitted on behalf of the Attorney-General of New Brunswick that the Canadian government could not abolish appeals to the Privy Council "because there are many circumstances in which neither the province nor the Dominion has the power to interfere with the rights of His Majesty's subjects."

The Privy Council is hearing an appeal by the Attorneys-General of British Columbia, New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario against a Supreme Court of Canada judgment in 1940 upholding the validity of a bill introduced in the Canadian Parliament in 1939 which would abolish the Privy Council as the ultimate court of appeal in Canadian law cases.

Replying to Mr. Barton's submission that British Columbia would not have entered the union without the right of appeal to the Privy Council, the Lord Chancellor said he did not consider the argument relevant to the case.

B.C.E.R. Discusses Refinancing Deal

A delegation of B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. officials, headed by A. E. "Dal" Grauer, president, today met the provincial cabinet and Dr. W. A. Carrothers, chairman of the B.C. Public Utilities Commission, to discuss a financing of bonds of the B.C.E.R. and subsidiary companies.

Premier John Hart said following the meeting that the matter had been taken under consideration.

U.S.S.R. Has A Good Case—In Fact 30

The Soviet delegation to the United Nations' Assembly session came prepared for any emergency, it seems. Above, New York stevedores unload some of the 30 crates of cognac and vodka the Russians brought along on the Ss. Queen Elizabeth.

Russians Score Presence Of British, U.S. Troops

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
NEW YORK (AP)—A Russian blast at the presence of United States troops in China and British forces in Greece, the Middle East and Indonesia pointed the way today for a major policy address by Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov of Russia before the United Nations' Assembly.

Diplomatic authorities speculated that Mr. Molotov, speaking for the first time in the Assembly's general debate, now drawing to a climax, probably would hammer on many, if not all, of the main points of Soviet criticism of the western powers initially set forth in a session Monday night by Kuzma Kiselev, Foreign Minister of White Russia, one of the constituent republics of the U.S.S.R.

Mr. Molotov was slated to take the rostrum at the second of the day's two sessions (11 a.m. and 4 p.m. E.S.T.). Altogether representatives of 10 countries were due to be heard, including Syria, Ethiopia, Bolivia, The Philippines and The Netherlands at the first session and Canada, Greece, Australia and Colombia at the second.

There was some behind the scenes activity on selection of three countries to replace The Netherlands, Mexico and Egypt on the Security Council at the end of this year. Britain and the United States were reported to favor Belgium, Syria and Colombia, but Britain was giving some consideration to India instead of Syria and no final decision has been reached.

The general debate entered its fifth day with other disputes raging also over small countries' demands for doing away with the great power veto in the Security Council and over continuation of the Franco Government in Spain.

Union School Board Elections On Regional Basis In This Area

It has been decided that elections for the Greater Victoria School Board will be held on a regional basis, with four members being elected from Victoria, two from Saanich, two from Oak Bay and one from Esquimalt, it was announced following a special School Board meeting Monday evening.

Two Victoria members, one Saanich, one Oak Bay and one Esquimalt member will be elected for two-year terms, and the remainder for a one-year term. After this year's elections, the first since the amalgamation of the school boards, all members will be elected for a two-year term.

At the time of filing papers the candidates will be expected to inform the municipal clerk whether they are running for a one-year or two-year term, and separate balloting will be held for the two terms of office.

None of the present members of the nine-man board, with the exception of Waldo Skillings, who sits for Victoria, and M. A. Edmunds, Saanich member, have announced their intention of running.

Vancouver Woman Died Of Exposure

VANCOUVER (CP)—Mrs. Betty Gaudin, 30-year-old mother of four children, whose body was found on Burnaby Mountain Sunday, five days after she had disappeared from her suburban home, probably was alive—lying exhausted in bushes a mile away—when searchers found her two-year-old daughter, Judith, last Thursday night.

"We can't be sure, but I believe she died after the child was found," a pathologist reported today. Death was caused by exposure.

Says Facts Will End Suspensions; Reply To Stalin

LONDON (CP)—Winston Churchill called tonight for a full report on "all military forces that may cause concern" to any of the victorious countries of the war, suggesting the United Nations as a sounding board.

The British wartime leader first made and then withdrew a challenge of Prime Minister Stalin's statement that there were only 60 Soviet divisions in the Russian-occupied areas of Europe, as against Mr. Churchill's own suggestion that 200 divisions were on duty between the Baltic and Black Seas.

In a rapid reply to his wartime colleague, Mr. Churchill at first said Premier Stalin's figures of 60 divisions did "not include Romania."

"Nor, of course," it was added, "do they include the heavy Soviet concentrations in the Leningrad and Odessa areas."

But two hours later, he struck the references from his statement without explanation. (See Stalin's Statement, page 3).

Mr. Churchill commented that there had been no "contradiction" by the British government of his suggestion that Soviet divisions in the area totaled 200.

"On the contrary," he said, "the statement of the Prime Minister and the Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs showed only anxiety at the strength of the Soviet mobilized forces."

"No one would have been more pleased than I to be told that I was misinformed."

Mr. Churchill, whom Premier Stalin had described as among "instigators of a new war" who should be exposed and curbed, said "one would have thought" that information about the extent of Allied forces in occupied territory would be exchanged among the Allies.

"We hear a great deal about suspicions. Nothing sweeps away suspicions like facts, and I consider it my duty to continue to press for the facts."

"It seems to me that a clearing up of this matter would be highly beneficial from every point of view and surely the present meetings of the U.N. and the Security Council should be the occasion for the fullest, fairest disclosure of all military forces that may cause concern to any of those who fought and won."

Murchison Named Chairman Of W.L.B.

OTTAWA (CP)—C. A. L. Murchison, Ottawa, alternate chairman of the National War Labor Board, has been made chairman, Labor Minister Mitchell announced today. A former Winnipeg lawyer, Mr. Murchison came to Ottawa in 1941 and joined the War Labor Board staff in 1944.

Garagemen Want Closing By-Law Enforced By City

The Garage and Motor Trades Association, Victoria branch, has written the City Council complaining about the withdrawal of charges against Stanley Johnson, gasoline station operator, recently in police court because A. J. Patton, city solicitor, did not consider the gasoline shops early closing by-law valid.

In the letter the association stated: "The association considers the city solicitor overstepped his position in making this statement, and feel he introduced a personal feeling rather than a legal finding. The only person the by-law was unsatisfactory to was the violator and we feel the charge should have been upheld."

The association continued that when the by-law was presented in 1942 it was considered workable by legal authorities, and that "everything the City Council asked for in the way of providing service for the immediate needs of the motorist was complied with and the operators have had the privilege of reasonable hours of work since the by-law came into effect."

J. Foster, president, and A. E. Songhurst, secretary, insisted that "over 95 per cent of the operators do not wish stations to operate longer than 10 hours a day, therefore we look to the City Council to assist us in maintaining decent hours of work."

C.N.R. Turns Down City Request On Ogden Point Piers

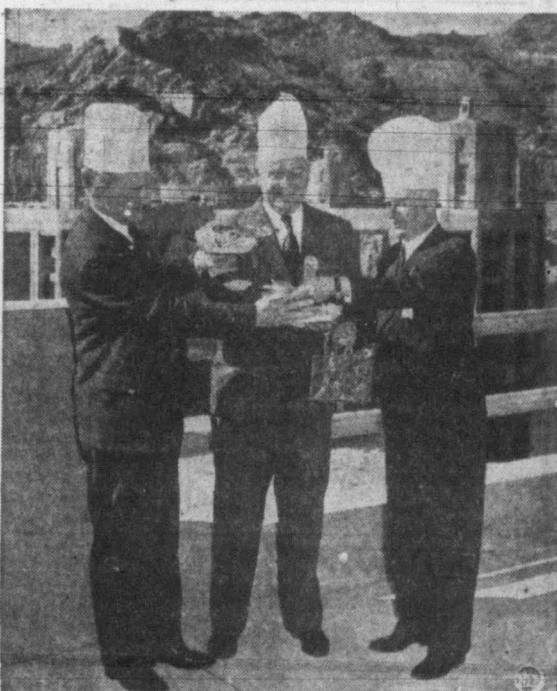

R. C. Vaughan, president of the C.N.R., has informed Mayor Percy George that there is little likelihood of the present mode of operation of Ogden Point Docks being changed, or of any extensive repair work being done there, unless the Dominion government will undertake it.

In a letter received today by the mayor, Mr. Vaughan stated that the Ogden Point docks are the property of the Dominion, and the C.N.R. acts only as managers and operators for the government. He insisted that the company has always operated and maintained the docks in an adequate way for all traffic operating from them.

His letter continued, "as long as we have the management thereof, we shall continue to operate and maintain them. The docks are available for use by any trans-Pacific shipping company upon payment of the usual wharfage charges."

He further stated that "having been the operators of the facilities during many lean years without complaint, we would be opposed to any arrangement which contemplated participation in the management by any other company, particularly as we are quite able, through our own car ferry operations to handle present and prospective traffic ourselves without assistance."

He insisted that "so far as any major alterations or additions to the present docks are concerned, these being in the nature of harbor improvements are something for consideration of the government as owners of the facilities." Mr. Vaughan said he would write the Minister of Transport, "so that he may have before him the representations which you have made in this respect."

Canada's War-Time Staff Reduced Slightly; Many Others To Be Added

OTTAWA (CP)—Despite a heavy postwar influx of veterans into the civil service, war-time government workers have not been laid off in great numbers, and the civil service still is looking for employees, commission officials said today.

Layoff of temporary civil servants hired during the war has not been nearly as heavy as expected. For the most part, those who have left are married women who wanted to return to domestic life, and retired persons who went back to work during the war only while there was an emergency.

Hundreds of other employees have been transferred from the now-defunct wartime branches to such divisions as the Department of Veterans Affairs, which has grown since the war ended, and the Department of National Health and Welfare, where family allowances alone have demanded a large increase in staff.

For the man or woman seeking government employment there is a wide choice of jobs; report civil service commission officials. Veterans have the priority, and at the moment 80 per cent of the men employed are former servicemen. However, there are several openings for non-veterans. Most of which are lower-paying jobs in which the returned man is not usually interested.

Whatever the reason, so far not many women veterans have applied for employment.

At the moment the government needs engineers, architects and chemists, and the commission plans on checking the prospective 1947 graduates qualified to take positions as junior administrators.

There also is a heavy demand for nurses and social workers in the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Department of National Health and Welfare. In addition, a dire shortage of stenographers and typists exists.

BROCKVILLE, Ont. (CP)—Steven Andrew, 68, probably will recover although he is in a hospital here with a broken neck, hospital authorities today said. Andrew broke his neck in a five-foot fall Monday while on a painting job.

U.S. Price Ceilings Up On Imported Leathers

WASHINGTON (AP)—O.P.A. lifted ceilings Monday on some shoes made from imported leather in an action it said would add about $30,000,000 to the nation's annual footwear bill.

The agency reported that sharply increased costs of kangaroo, wallaby, jack buck and cabretta led to the boosts ranging from 10 to 16 per cent at retail.

The agency said today's increase in shoe ceilings applies only to models that were being made in March, 1942, when prices were frozen, but that other models soon will be allowed similar increases.

To Broadcast Talks On Price Control

Donald Gordon, chairman of the War-time Prices and Trade Board, will speak to the public of Canada by radio early in November on various aspects of price control.

Dates for Mr. Gordon's addresses are: Nov. 2, 4, 8, 11 and 15, and times will be announced later. His first broadcast will be entitled "Realities of Price

No More Butter Seen For November

OTTAWA (CP)—Prices Board officials are giving increasing attention to the question of a plan for Canada's butter ration this winter, but have so far come to no conclusion, and the prospects are there will be no change in the present six-ounce ration at least during November.

One Prices Board official said it was "touch-and-go" whether the Dominion would have to cut back on the ration. He said it was expected a decision would not be made for a fortnight.

One question being closely studied by officials, but on which no definition figures are yet available, is the amount milk consumption by the general public has been cut by the removal of subsidies on whole milk. Removal of consumer producer and subsidies in May and September has resulted in a five-cent increase to consumers in most provinces, but so far as has been learned up to date, this has not greatly decreased consumption.

Control. Later, he will speak on "Your Bread and Butter," "A Shirt on Your Back," "A Roof Over Your Head," and "Facing the Facts."

Frenchman To Speak

Rene Thibault, director of the French Information Service in Ottawa and press attaché at the French Embassy and a graduate of L'Ecole Normale Supérieure and an "agregé" in letters, will arrive here Nov. 6 and address a meeting of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs. Mr. Thibault taught for two years in France before going to Tokyo, where he was professor of literature at the French Institute, Athens. In 1940 he crossed Canada on his way to join Gen. de Gaulle's personal staff. Two years later he joined the Ministry of Information of the French National Committee in London as chief of the minister's staff. Mr. Thibault accompanied the French forces when they landed in Corsica, as representative of the Ministry of Information, and he was the first to establish relations with the press of liberated France. Last January, Mr. Thibault was appointed to his present post in Ottawa.

Give Crew Names Of Aircraft For Air Service Here

Names of crews of the 21-passenger DC-3s which will serve on Trans-Canada Airlines' new Victoria-Seattle-Vancouver service, to be inaugurated Friday, have been announced. Nearly all are ex-R.C.A.F. pilots.

They are: Capt. J. R. Crispin, Capt. C. L. Rickard, Capt. T. N. D. Ramsay, Capt. V. F. Willis, Capt. R. R. Stevenson, First Officer G. W. Northcott, First Officer R. O. Raymond, First Officer J. Dutchak, First Officer H. D. Clarke and First Officer A. S. C. Buscombe.

First Officer Northcott is an example of TCA's ex-R.C.A.F. pilots. During World War II, he completed four tours of operations, including one over Malta. He was awarded the D.S.O. and D.F.C. and Bar for his service. Before returning home to join TCA, he was in command of an occupation force unit.

In the 55-minute flight to Seattle from Patricia Bay the large passenger craft will fly from the local airport southeast to Dungeness on the Olympic Peninsula and then directly to the Seattle airport.

The DC-3s, which underwent modification at the Montreal Canadair factory, have a 95-foot wingspan, an overall length of 64 feet, five inches, and a 17-foot maximum height. Each is able to carry besides its passengers and crew, 800 pounds of cargo and 684 gallons of fuel at a speed in excess of 160 miles per hour. In addition of the 21 passengers, the aircraft carry a captain, first officer and stewardess.

Premier Stalin Says Men Like Churchill Current 'Worst Threat To World Peace'

LONDON (CP) — Premier Stalin declared today the Soviet Union has not developed an atomic bomb nor any similar weapon, and said Russia's troop strength in the occupied countries of eastern Europe totals 60 divisions and will be reduced in two months to 40.

In response to 31 questions submitted to him by Hugh Bailie, president of the United Press Association, Stalin accused Winston Churchill of being among the "instigators of a new war," and disagreed with State Secretary Byrnes of the United States that there is growing tension between Russia and the United States.

MEDITERRANEAN SCENE
In response to other questions, as broadcast by the Moscow radio, Stalin declared:

1. The government of the U.S.S.R. is "indifferent" to the presence of U.S. warships in the Mediterranean.

2. He does not feel the veto power has been used to excess either in the U.N. Security Council or in the Foreign Ministers' Council.

3. Russia regards the western borders of Poland as permanent.

4. Russia feels that "Yugoslavia has grounds to be dissatisfied" with the peace treaty drafted for Italy at the Paris conference.

5. The U.S.S.R. regards "as unnecessary" the presence of British troops in Greece.

6. Stalin believes "not only the economic, but also the political, unity of Germany is to be desired."

In today's answers, Stalin said he felt "the instigators of a new war, in the first place Mr. Churchill and others of like mind in Britain and the U.S.A.," constitute "the worst threat to world peace."

The Soviet leader said in reply to the query as to whether Russia possessed the atom bomb that he had already given his estimate of the bomb as a weapon in his statement last Sept. 24 when he said he felt "strict international control" of the weapon was necessary.

Russia's eastern European military force, said Stalin, consists of 60 divisions, "most not fully staffed," instead of the 200 mentioned by Mr. Churchill in his "question statement" in the House of Commons last week. A demobilization order will cut that force to 40 divisions two months from now, he added.

WAR CRIMES TRIALS

Stalin said that the more extensive are the prosecutions of remaining German war criminals "the better."

The Soviet leader declared he hoped current negotiations will result in peace treaties which will bring about cordial relations among the nations of the world which fought in the war against Fascism.

The questions and answers were transmitted from Moscow by the Russian news agency

Detailed Plans Call For Modern School

PORT ALBERNI — Blueprints for Port Alberni's proposed new Junior-Senior High School recently received from Hubert Savage, architect, show the dimensions of the main building as 440 by 312 feet.

It is planned to erect the school between Anderson Avenue and 16th Avenue.

The proposed building is E-shaped, and contains the most modern conveniences that can be arranged for a school of this type.

Twenty-two classrooms occupy much of the interior space, but there are provisions for laboratories, music rooms, libraries, art rooms, a cafeteria and an auditorium with a seating capacity of 1,000. Two gymnasiums, one for boys and the other for girls, measure 96 by 60 feet each. The school plans also call for provision of shops for industrial training.

Capt. Proudfoot Speaks To Langford Liberals

COLWOOD — Langford Liberal Association met in the Colwood Community Hall Monday evening and saw a full-length movie program.

An address on Liberalism by Capt. Proudfoot followed the films. Capt. Proudfoot, describing Canada's foreign policy in the past decade, said Canada had become the recognized leader of smaller countries. He explained the part Canada is playing as a member of the United Nations, and the assistance the country is giving to Britain.

$360 Contributed

DUNCAN — The tag day for the National Institute for the Blind held Saturday by the Cowichan Chapter, I.O.D.E., resulted in collection of $360. Mrs. J. G. Hannigan, regent, supervised the tagging, assisted by members of the chapter and other organizations.

War-time Pilot Operating Own Sawmill At Koksilah

A former pilot in the air force, Bob Merlees, has built himself a sawmill at the old Indian village of Koksilah in less than a year and is now employing other war veterans cutting lumber for furniture and railway ties.

Merlees started erecting his plant last February with the help of a friend. Proceeding by trial and error, and after many irritating delays and setbacks, Merlees, who previously knew nothing about sawmills, began cutting his first logs a few weeks ago.

Logs come into the mill by truck, and lumber goes out by rail.

During his four years in the R.C.A.F., the self-taught sawmill operator saw much of the world from the pilot's seat of a Coastal Command bomber. He operated in Burma, North Africa, Italy and Great Britain.

Road Repairs Asked By Sooke Delegation

A delegation of 10 from Sooke Rural School District asked Public Works Minister E. C. Carson Monday for immediate repairs to roads in the district and completion of a general road improvement program within a year.

The delegation told Mr. Carson that because of the state of the roads and the consequent difficulties in transporting children to school, the board would be forced to discard its policy of providing high school opportunities for children of Jordan River, Shirley, Mulr Creek, and Otter Point if the roads were not repaired.

The program of roadwork sought by the delegation included: Hard-surfacing of the entire length of Jordan River Road, together with necessary bridges, improvement of bends, and placing of road signs.

General improvement and straightening of Sooke Road from Cooper's Corner to Goldstream cutoff, with special emphasis on a neglected rock cut at the junction of Kangaroo Road.

Construction of a sidewalk from Sooke River bridge to the junction of Otter Point Road.

ANOTHER 'INTERVIEW'

BY THE QUESTION AND ANSWER method, which seems to be the best "for the record," Marshal Stalin is gradually revealing some of his more important political thoughts to the outside world. Included in his recent interview with the Moscow correspondent of The London Sunday Times was the Russian leader's statement that he "did not believe in the danger of a new war," that he believed "in the possibility of friendly and lasting co-operation between the Soviet and western democracies," and that "I am confident of the possibility of friendly relations between the Soviet and Britain." Nor did the Generalissimo appear to be unduly alarmed over the potentialities of the atom bomb or what he termed the encirclement of his country by any "capitalist-monopolistic" combination. All of which sounded optimistic and friendly; but almost before the outside world had had sufficient opportunity to absorb the Stalin dictum the official journalistic organs of the Communist Party in Moscow had resumed their attacks on the western democracies.

While the latest "interview," in which the Marshal answers a series of questions put to him by the President of the United Press, differs in several detailed respects from that obtained by the London Journalist, the purport is largely the same—an apparent desire on the part of the head of the Soviet state to convince the world of his good intentions. It is evident, however, that uppermost in his mind at this stage is Mr. Churchill's concern over the number of Russian divisions at present on a war footing in eastern Europe. In his remarks during the foreign policy debate in the House of Commons last week, the former Prime Minister asked whether it was, or was not, a fact that there were 200 divisions. His former colleague of the original "Big Three" has now replied that the number is 60 divisions and that these will be reduced to 40 by the end of the year. Which has evoked a demand from one London daily that Mr. Churchill either substantiate or withdraw his suggestion—although the same newspaper tempers this exhortation with the remark that "for Stalin to describe Mr. Churchill as 'foremost among the incendiaries of a new war' is to re-echo, in British ears, the tone and vocabulary of the Nazis." In a lengthy editorial in The Times of London last Thursday, however, we read this admonition:

"The closing stages of the debate were overshadowed by Mr. Churchill's question whether it is, or is not, a fact that there are more than 200 Soviet divisions on a war footing in European occupied territory. Mr. McNeill's reply neither confirmed nor denied Mr. Churchill's allegation. A more definite statement from the government will be needed, if only to undo the harm done by the way Mr. Churchill chose to put his question. It should have been put first to the government in private. If the facts are correct it is for the government to decide what to do or say about them. Public debate on the degree of mobilization of an ally can only stimulate further alarmist talk of war throughout the world."

The Times further argues that it is no excuse that the Russians first embarked on "these melancholy mathematics" by publishing wildly exaggerated figures of British troops in the Middle East. What still remains green in the memories of most Britons, on the other hand, is the accuracy of Mr. Churchill's predictions about German preparations for Hitler's war. It stands to reason, of course, that a world which knows how "this great Englishman" led his people through "their finest hour" does not regard him as a "foremost" figure "among the incendiaries of a new war." They know he will be the first to applaud Marshal Stalin's latest statement on the number of Soviet divisions in eastern Europe. And few will soon forget the eloquence and sincerity of the Prime Minister's message to the Russian people on a memorable June day in 1941. Mr. Churchill, moreover, regardless of his new parliamentary status, knows better than most people how tremendously a lasting accord depends upon the peaceful progress of the 190,000,000 souls who inhabit the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

GIFT FOR HEROES

SOUTH AFRICA'S PRIME MINISTER Smuts has turned over to Britain's Prime Minister Attlee a gift of nearly $4,000,000 as a symbol of South Africa's admiration of the British people's conduct during the war. The gift carried the stipulation that the money be used "for advantage of the British people."

This generous and significant tribute might serve to recall to a great many people throughout the world that Britain and her citizens did conduct themselves heroically, and that they performed a heroic feat. It seems incredible that the world should need that reminder, but it apparently does. Today, says a New York commentator, the British are being roundly cursed from Moscow to Chicago, and at a great many of the stops between. There is a chorus of condemnation of British imperialism, British decadence, British cruelty. We are told that Winston Churchill is a reactionary villain, that his fellow citizens are generally overbearing and ungrateful, and so on.

Britain has made some mistakes, perhaps as bad as the United States or Russia would make if they were saddled with the heavy problems of India and Palestine. But let us also remember that if it had not been for Mr. Churchill and the British people in 1940-41, those problems might have been settled—by Adolf Hitler. There might have been no Jewish immigrants to storm the gates of Palestine, and the question of India might have been neatly answered by the Japs.

So, concludes the commentator to whom we have referred, "It is not necessary to approve every British action in order to pay the British people the elementary courtesy of remembering their contribution to the battle for world freedom."

DEVELOPING B.C.

TO THOSE INTERESTED IN THE DEVELOPMENT of British Columbia, the initiative shown by returned service personnel in the number of new enterprises they have established is both gratifying and encouraging. Opportunities are being seized by these young men who are knitting their personal fortunes into the fabric of provincial expansion in a manner which links the one with the other inextricably. They are demonstrating their faith in this part of Canada by the energy with which they are working for the success of their private businesses which, in turn, must assist the economy of the entire region.

Symbolic of this approach to the future is the passenger and freight service taken over by two former lieutenants of the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve, H. E. Young and G. B. McCandless, whose vessel Uchuck No. 1, is plying the waters of the West Coast, bringing essentials and some of the amenities to the communities of Barkley Sound. That is but one of a number of developments in different parts of British Columbia. In the neighborhood of Victoria other veterans have opened small manufacturing plants that inject more red blood into the industrial stream. In the interior, numerous undertakings are thriving through the labors of former members of the forces who have found suitable openings for the exploitation of their talents and are laying the foundations for good and secure livings while they are rendering valuable service to their communities.

While this spirit prevails, the sound and vigorous growth of the province seems assured.

WITH GENERAL APPROVAL

ANY MEASURE ADVANCED TO INCREASE the physical protection of men working in the woods will be acclaimed by the public of this province. The decision by the British Columbia Loggers' Association to establish a new safety department within the organization falls within that category. The increase in the number of accidents reported during the first nine months of this year is something which cannot and should not be ignored.

The nature of their occupations, the size of the trees which are felled and the rugged territory over which they must be transported to mills, combine to present dangers to even the most competent lumbermen. It is logical, moreover, to assume that a large number of inexperienced men have been attracted into the industry. And in logging, as in few other vocations, the admission to a group of green help carries with it hazards not only to those who are new to the job but to those whom they join. British Columbians share with citizens of other parts of Canada the desire to get lumber quickly. But they would be unwilling to permit insistence on speedy delivery to jeopardize the lives and limbs of those on whom they depend for sustained production in the woods. The new safety department will be established with the blessings of all.

COST OF PRICE CONTROLS

IF ESTIMATES ARE CORRECT, CANADA will have spent approximately $900 millions between 1941 and March 31, 1947 to keep down the cost of living. From present indications, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board will spend about $90 millions during the 1946-47 period, while the Department of Agriculture will spend $85 millions to meet its subsidy costs.

According to information secured by The Financial Post, the W.P.T.B. subsidies for 1946-47 will run close to the $93 millions spent in 1945. There will be some changes in emphasis on certain products, however, due primarily to the increases in prices of United States' coal, cotton and other textiles, plus increases in coffee and wool prices in other countries.

Subsidies on some items will be increased while they will be lowered on others. Those on milk will drop from $20.8 millions to $6.6 millions. Others will also be lower on rubber, fruit and vegetables, woodware, dried fruit and a number of miscellaneous items. Subsidies will show increases on iron, coal and coke, imported oils and fats, imported wool and wool products and coffee.

In addition to W.P.T.B. subsidies, the Department of Agriculture will spend approximately $85 millions for such items as milk, cheese and butter, amounting to $48.5 millions; freight assistance on western feed grains, $18 millions; wheat for livestock feed, $8 millions; premiums on hogs, $5 millions; and miscellaneous items, $6 millions.

The combined subsidies from 1941 to March 31, 1947 will total $440 millions for W.P.T.B.; $375 millions for the Department of Agriculture; and $80 millions for bread; a total of nearly $900 millions.

Walter Lippmann BRITISH LEADERSHIP IN EUROPE

MR. BEVIN'S SPEECH is a striking example of how the British, without military or economic predominance, are able to remain a leading power in the world. By long tradition which is now instinctive, and also, more than most British statesmen would willingly admit, by conscious design, they are masters of the art of using the balance of power.

Once the United States had come forward to relieve the pressure of the Soviets on the Empire, the development of British foreign policy in Europe, and particularly as to Germany, during the last six or seven months has been one of gradual but steady progress toward a middle position between the Soviet Union and the United States. Britain has now reached that middle position in Mr. Bevin's statement that the British policy in Germany is socialist. As against the Communists they will stand for free institutions and political democracy, but they will stand also for public ownership of the basic industries rather than for the restoration of free capitalism.

THIS IS A LINE of policy which corresponds more accurately than does that of Moscow or the United States to the sentiments of Europe and to the practical conditions of the Continent, and it will undoubtedly enhance enormously the influence of Britain in the reconstruction of Europe.

The decision to promote socialism in Germany was, of course, in the making before the recent German elections in Berlin. But the results of those elections show that the British have placed their bets on the right horse. The Communists were decisively beaten. But they were beaten by the Socialists.

That election was almost certainly typical of postwar Europe as a whole. The struggle for Europe is not between, say, Churchill and Stalin. It is between the Socialists—the non-Communist and anti-totalitarian left—and the Communists. The foreign policy of the Labor Party, which is only now beginning to emerge, is adjusted to that fact. It suits the Labor Party; which is itself a socialist party. But it suits also the permanent underlying British interest in that it enables Britain once again to occupy the middle position in the world, and to exert an important, perhaps a decisive, influence upon the balance of power.

WE MUST NOT think that the British have decided for socialism in Germany for purely ideological reasons. The condition of Germany and of the liberated countries is the controlling reason. The shattered and dislocated economy of Europe cannot be restored by private enterprise. All Europeans, even the moderate conservatives, realize that this is the fact. The capital investment required to reconstruct Europe is so great, the risks so high, that private finance and private enterprise cannot provide the capital. Only governments can do it. Moreover, there are lacking the men to conduct great private enterprises. Too many were disabled or killed by the Nazis, and too many were hopelessly discredited by collaboration with the Nazis.

FREE ENTERPRISE, as it is understood and practiced in the United States, is not a practical regime in postwar Europe. The Europeans, not only the Germans, cannot restore free enterprise in the great basic industries. Their choices are communism, some form of socialism, or—though this is impossible on a large scale—to be financed and managed from abroad—that is to say, chiefly from the United States.

The propaganda which Moscow has been conducting against the U.S.—which Mr. Byrnes so rightly resents—about "economic imperialism" is an attempt to exploit the fear prevalent all over Europe, and in Britain, too, that in the name of free enterprise the United States will use her immense creditor position and industrial power to control the social development of Europe.

The British are well aware that Mr. George E. Allen has been in Berlin to look into the financing of German and other European industry through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

NOW ONE OF THE compelling reasons why Britain will take the socialist line in Germany is that Britain is unable, as it did after the First World War, to finance German reconstruction through the London banking houses. They own a very considerable part of German debt, perhaps as much as $120,000,000, left over from before the war, which would have to be dealt with before private financing could begin. Moreover, Britain is short of dollars and the hard currencies, and could finance German industry only in the sterling area.

The United States, on the other hand, owns very little German debt, and can be a strong creditor. The British as such, and the British under a socialist government still less, will not wish to see the United States acquire a serious control over the basic industries of Germany. The socialization of those industries suits them, therefore, not only ideologically, not only diplomatically, but financially and economically as well.

IT WILL BE DIFFICULT for Americans in their present mood to adjust their minds and policy to these developments. But they must adjust them. Hard as it will be to accept the view that socialism is necessary in Europe, Americans will have to accept it if they want peace and reconstruction more than they want to vindicate their own ideology abroad.

The present crisis is not a question of who wins, the Kuomintang or the Communists. It is a question of the Chinese people, their unity and livelihood.—Mme. Sun Yat-sen, widow of Chinese Republic's founder.

Her mother taught her it's a wife's duty to see that a husband is happy in his work. So—if Bob wanted to raise chickens—well, she might be a city girl, but she could hold up her end (so she thought!).
November Reader's Digest brings you a 21-page condensation from the book that has led best-seller lists for a year. Don't miss Betty MacDonald's hilarious tale of how her husband turned her into a farmer's wife—or did he?

5,000,000 Americans over 25 are slated to succumb to coronary disease, says George Dock, Jr. He tells how such that what we eat or don't eat is a major factor in arterial degeneration ask yourself for your own good.

Ten books for perfect bedtime reading.
What stories would you pick to read last half hour before you turn out he tells you why they are the perfect bedtime reading fare.

Russian post here because he couldn't stomach Soviet aims. Here is his inside story of life in circles close to the Kremlin—a terror-filled life of spying, deception, and fanatical zeal.

What are we scared off? What's coming—a depression, unemployment, another war? J. A. Krug, Secretary of the Interior, tells why he thinks we're headed for more employment, more production, more leisure and luxury than ever... and the only thing that can prevent it.

There's a breathless rush in the house tonight,

New Honors For Primary Work Leader

There's a bright look of achievement in the eyes of Miss Marian James, consultant on primary education in Greater Victoria, these days.

She has just seen two years of compilation work culminated in book form, in the first of four readers in a new Canadian Reader Development series.

Miss James compiled the complete reader and she's very proud of the fact that it is an all-Canadian product, from cover to finished text.

In the two years she read and discarded many stories and poems. She checked ideas. Listened to suggestions. Finally she had what she thought was an outstanding selection.

But her work was not by any means finished with choice of stories and poems. Every selection was then graded by objective tests, as well as tried out in the classroom. Finally they were scientifically arranged to follow modern trends in teaching.

STORIES AND POEMS

Many of the stories were especially written for the book and they cover all parts of the British Empire and most of the activities of the Canadian people.

The reader opens with Stanley Weir's version of "O Canada" and closes with a story about June MacKenzie, an English Girl Guide, who received the Silver Cross, highest award in the Girl Guide manual, for bravery in the line of duty during the blitz.

In between are poems by Rachel Fields, Walter de la Mare, Wilfred Campbell and stories by Elizabeth Cotsworth, Alice Gall, Fleming Crew and many other outstanding poets and authors.

Illustrations, in full color were done by Canadian artists, two young girls and an older man, all living in Toronto. Lithographing, printing and binding were also done in the Ontario city.

Work was completed last spring and early in September the reader was off the press. The Inter-provincial Reading Committee chose the book as an authorized text for the four western provinces and it was immediately accepted for use in Alberta. It will also be used in British Columbia at an early date.

Compilation of the new reader is just one of Miss James' extra curricular projects. Her main interest centres around the development of pre-primary education in greater

Victoria and she has been the main spring in that movement since it commenced here in 1943.

PRE-PRIMARY WORK

Appointed superintendent of primary education in Victoria in 1942, she visited nursery school centres in Seattle, Portland, Kaiser Shipyards and took courses at the Oregon State College. Then with nothing in western Canada from which to base kindergarten work, Marian James set out to create a program especially adapted to the training of the very young child.

She planned the pre-primary rooms, designed furnishings and play toys, chose the books. She also gathered together a group of young teachers especially adapted for this work and before the first experimental classroom was opened at Spring Ridge School in the fall of 1943, she worked and studied with them.

Today, there are seven pre-primary classes in Greater Victoria, and Miss James is eagerly looking forward to more in the near future.

"With the continued help of the School Board," she says, "we won't stop until every small child

Authorize Purchase Of Gordon Head Land

The City Council authorized purchase of the 57.5 acres of naval property at Gordon Head at as low a price as possible from War Assets Corporation at Monday's council meeting.

Ald. F. G. Mulliner questioned if this was "another case of Victoria having to go it alone?" He said he favored the project but would like to have seen the other municipalities participate.

Ald. Edward Williams, chairman of the finance committee, replied that at the moment Victoria was having to undertake the project single-handed, as both Oak Bay and Saanich had turned it down. Esquimalt was the only one to show any interest he said, but the committee still had hopes that the other municipalities would come in.

Ald. J. A. Worthington questioned the value of going ahead with the project if Saanich was opposed.

Council To Review Terms Of Housing Enterprises Contract

The City Council will completely review all terms of the proposed contract with Housing Enterprises Ltd., before it completes the contract to sell 104 lots in the northern part of the city to the company, it was decided at Monday's City Council meeting.

This will be done at a meeting of committee of the whole to be called early this week by Mayor Percy George, and at the same time the whole housing picture in Victoria will be discussed, as well as the proposal to enter into a further contract with Wartime Housing Ltd. to build an additional 50 homes for veterans.

The question arose when the lands, zoning and housing committee reported that the contract for sale of the lots to Housing Enterprises, which is financed by the insurance companies of Canada, was nearly ready for signing, and asking that its signature by the proper officials be authorized.

Ald. H. M. Diggon said that while he had favored the proposition when it was first presented, he had since been informed by Victor Leigh, president of the Builders' Exchange, that the building of these houses, which get priority on much-needed building supplies, will hold up completion of at least 1,000 houses in the Victoria area which are now standing partially finished.

SEEKS BUILDERS' VIEWS

In view of this, and also because the houses were not proposed as low-rental homes, Ald. Diggon asked that the whole question be discussed again at a special meeting to which the local builders would be invited to express their views and substantiate statements made against Housing Enterprises.

Ald. R. A. C. Dewar, chairman of the lands, zoning and housing committee, said he doubted some of the charges made about the cornering of short supplies such as nails. He pointed out that the firm was going to pay full taxes for their houses, not get special rates as Wartime Housing has done, and for this reason alone would have to charge higher rates. He asked Council support for the agreement because it was a good business move on the part of the city.

Ald. B. J. Gadsden insisted that to delay signing the contract would be to deprive Victoria of much needed housing. He insisted that the company had its pool of supplies for the projects all across Canada and if the houses were not built in Victoria those same materials would be used in other cities.

WORK STARTED
City Solicitor A. J. Patton reported that the company had actually started work on some of the houses, although no building permits have been taken out.

When the question of the 50 additional wartime houses came up Mayor Percy George said he would subscribe to having them built. However, he pointed out, many of the applicants for houses could not qualify as veterans for one of the wartime houses, and the Housing Enterprises project would help these people. "We must do something for the people in need of houses as well as the veterans," he declared.

without two bits' worth of machinery."

Ald. Hunter said that the proposition would call for an expenditure of $25,000 this year, and the remainder spent in 1947 and 1948 as the machines became available on the market.

In answer to a question from Ald. R. A. C. Dewar, G. M. Irwin, city engineer, said that $2,800 had been spent this year for rental of machines to dig trenches for water mains being laid.

Ald. J. D. Hunter, chairman of the public works committee, stressed that Victoria has no equipment or machinery of any kind and that it is both uneconomical and inefficient to have to either borrow or hire machinery for all jobs to be done.

He said that the resurfacing of Linden Avenue would have been completed two weeks ago if the city could have obtained power equipment instead of having to use pick and shovel methods.

Ald. Hunter stressed the great amount of work coming up in the immediate future both on roads, water works, and providing services for city-owned lots, and for this it needs its own equipment.

Ald. Worthington indignantly questioned where the money was to come from, and declared that for maintenance work such expensive equipment was unnecessary. "We've done all our road and water work in the city—we finished it in 1910," he declared. "All we have to do now is maintain the streets and water mains."

Mayor Percy George characterized as "ridiculous" the situation of a "$12,000,000 corporation

The City Council decided to move the music library to the Public Library and place it under ordinary library rules at Monday's meeting.

City engineer G. M. Irwin was instructed to prepare a statement of the estimated costs of the proposed improvements to the Causeway, as well as draft plans and submit them to the federal Department of Reconstruction.

The recommendation of the Police Commission that new three-color traffic signal lights be installed in Victoria, was referred to the public works committee for support.

Sale of 22 parcels of city-owned land for $10,795 was approved by the City Council. Seven of these lots were sold to veterans for $1,060.

It was decided to spend $2,575 for painting of the steel work at the grain elevator.

The Council agreed that the all-day Wednesday closing of shoe retail stores by-law would be repealed because it was actually a nullity. The action was necessitated by notice served by David Spencer Ltd. that application would be made in the courts to have the by-law quashed.

City employees will be required to park their cars at the new parking lot at Cormorant and Blanshard, with the lot behind the Douglas Hotel being reserved for City Council members in future, it was decided.

Without discussion the City Council approved the 12 per cent increase in wages for outside employees not members of craft unions, a limited union security for the employees, and the check-off for association dues.

The City Council agreed to match dollar for dollar the expenditure of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation for renovation of Macaulay Point huts, up to $5,000 on recommendation of the social welfare committee.

Willows Sale by-law received its final reading at Monday's meeting, and now passes from the city's hands to S. W. Randall of the Colwood Park Racing Association.

Service Station Still Banned From Humboldt-Douglas

The battle to keep a gasoline service station from being built on the north-west corner of Humboldt and Douglas Streets continued at Monday's City Council meeting, with those who oppose the rezoning winning out by a scant 6 to 5 margin.

The question has been twice before the Town Planning Commission and three times before the City Council, with the result being the same each time.

Ald. J. D. Hunter, chairman of the public works committee, made the recommendation that the rezoning be refused because of potential traffic menace should the service station go there, and was supported by Ald. H. M. Diggon, chairman of the transportation committee, who pointed out that under the unified transportation routes buses would go around the corner.

Ald. J. A. Worthington was strong for the rezoning and "allowing that corner to develop." He insisted that it would give extra tax revenue.

Ald. Diggon also contended that the Council should not at this time, encourage any non-essential building such as garages when building materials were needed for houses, and Ald. F. G. Mulliner questioned why the Council should create another traffic hazard.

Voting against the rezoning and for the committee recommendation were Ald. Diggon, Ald. Hunter, Ald. Mulliner, Ald. B. J. Gadsden, Ald. D. D. McTavish, and Ald. Margaret D. Christie.

Voting for the rezoning and against the committee recommendation were Mayor Percy George, Ald. Edward Williams, Ald. Worthington, Ald. R. A. C. Dewar and Ald. W. L. Morgan.

May Open Tearoom At Beacon Hill

The possibility of the city opening some form of a tearoom in Beacon Hill Park was suggested by Ald. D. D. McTavish at Monday's City Council meeting.

The lands, zoning and housing committee asked City Solicitor A. J. Patton to bring in a report on the zoning regulations both for the park area and for the property immediately contiguous to see what the possibilities are of having a tearoom started for the benefit of park visitors.

"I have heard many comments from visitors about the lack of services at the park," Mayor Percy George commented.

Mr. Patton reported that according to the gift deed under which the city got the park, no concession could be let within the park itself, but that the city could set up tea-rooms or any other improvement for the benefit of the citizens.

Building Of High Rental Homes Criticized By Chamber Directors

Conflicting opinions were voiced at the special meeting called Monday by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce to discuss the critical housing situation in Victoria.

J. V. Johnson advocated the complete abolishment of the Crown corporation known as the Wartime Housing Limited and the Housing Enterprises Limited, the last named a company formed and owned by the life insurance companies of Canada, and government priorities on building materials.

He expressed the belief that only free enterprise would be able to alleviate the housing shortage.

On the other hand, V. L. Leigh recommended the abolishment only of Wartime Housing Enterprise on the ground that the insurance companies were building homes above the means of the veterans.

As for Wartime Housing Ltd., he said, it was building across Canada low rental houses for veterans.

"We are building 150 of them within the city limits and they are well built and designed and rented from $22 a month up."

"There is only one criticism to make," he added, "the taxes paid by the government are out of line with our tax set-up, therefore the tax payers of Victoria have to bear quite a large portion of the actual cost to the city of maintaining the necessary services."

SAYS RENT TOO HIGH

Mr. Leigh said that he strongly objected to the insurance companies entering the building and rental business, and to the building of the 104 houses by Housing Enterprise in Victoria.

"They plan to build houses with each a furnace in the basement and a fireplace, to be rented at not less than $45 a month," he said. "They are selling the citizens of Victoria the idea that they are justified in building these houses at this time as they will help solve our veterans housing problem. I ask you how many veterans can pay $45 a month.

He said the only type of housing the people of Canada should be asked to underwrite was low cost rental homes.

"Houses that are to rent for $45 a month are not low rental homes," he said.

Among the suggestions made by Mr. Leigh was the overhaul of the National Housing Act with a view to more liberal loans necessary under present conditions; and, over a longer period.

He also urged that the government speed up the conversion into living quarters of all suitable army camps, and maintained it was the government's responsibility to foster good relations between manufacturer and labor.

"The construction industry cannot do this, and until the manufacturer is willing to produce house-building materials and labor really gets down to work, there is little chance of a speedy solution to the housing problem."

PRIORITY SYSTEM

A change in the priority system was also advocated by Mr. Leigh in order to prevent building materials being used for unessential buildings.

"Did you ever stop and check up the amount of building going on in this area that could easily wait for a year or so until our returned men are properly housed?" asked the speaker, who pointed out that this was due to loopholes in the priority system.

J. Neely expressed the opinion that veterans should have more of a say on what type of house they wanted. Under the present system, he said, he had to accept what was handed out to him.

At this point, Mr. Johnson interrupted and said that Victoria would soon be a city of shacks if cheap homes were built.

"There is only one solution," he said, "the complete return of free enterprise."

Archie Willis said that he could not see how you could ask the government to abolish Wartime Housing Ltd., when it had supplied houses to workers during the war, while veterans were without homes.

"This would be rather hard to explain to the veterans," he said. "You can't build homes for war workers and forget the veterans."

In this respect, Fred Hawes pointed out that the government built 700 homes for war workers in Victoria and the majority of these were not occupied by former servicemen.

F. VORS PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

According to Maj. Cuthbert Holmes, president of the Chamber of Commerce, private enterprise could build much more quickly than government enterprise.

He recalled that in the pre-depression period, 80 new housing units were built for each 100 marriages and in the depression and post depression period only 20 housing units were built for 100 marriages.

"Who can say that Canada does not possess in vast quantities, all the material, lumber, concrete, roofing, wiring needed for housing," said Maj. Holmes. "If that is admitted, housing is being held up either for financial reasons or for manpower reasons, which may include red tape or both."

He said it was absolutely necessary that building costs be kept down if homes were to be within the means of the average wage-earner.

Most of the directors agreed on this point, but could not come to an agreement as to what policy the Chamber of Commerce should adopt.

Esquimalt Cafes Given Warning On Sanitation

A warning to Esquimalt cafes and restaurants that unless they adhere to sanitary conditions called for under the municipal by-law by the end of the year, applications for renewal of trades license would be refused, came from the meeting of Esquimalt Council Monday night.

Councillor Cmdr. A. C. Wurtele reported that a recent meeting of the Union Board of Health authorized an inspection of Esquimalt eating places and he noted some reports "were good and some bad." This was in regard to toilet facilities and to cleanliness of glassware and crockery. Councillor Wurtele said that at one place five complaints were found. The proprietors of the cafes and restaurants found at fault have until Dec. 31 to remedy the conditions or the council's warning will be enforced.

Esquimalt butchers will be asked to fill in affidavits stating the places where they get their meat—where the animals are slaughtered. This is a move on the part of the board of health to secure a closer supervision over meat to eliminate disease from that source.

BULLEN PARK

Councillor George Bishop was authorized to go into the matter of early improvement to the surface of Bullen Park with the municipal engineer. It was reported as "hilly and full of holes." The council heard that progress on the building of the dressing-rooms at the park was slow, due to the scarcity of materials.

The meeting unanimously passed a motion that a service charge of $2 a month be imposed for every family unit constructed for emergency shelter at Macaulay Point Camp and Moresby House by the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council. Reeve

Thomas Hadfield said that between 80 and 100 units was the expectation at the camp at Moresby and about $20. The $2 municipal charge would be derived from the rents charged the occupants, it was explained, but only from those units occupied.

Outdoor Theatre Plan At Esquimalt

Reeve Thomas Hadfield was personally opposed to leasing or selling the old Bullen Park site, behind Moresby House, to private interests to construct a "Theatre Under the Stars," he said at Monday's Esquimalt Council meeting. He had been approached by a party to this end, the reeve said, pointing out the plan was to have an underground wiring system whereby loud-speaker systems could be plugged into the patrons' cars.

The municipality's chief magistrate was of the opinion the site was a prize one for industrial use—"but if we sell the land to this party and his promotion fails, he retains possession and can subdivide to make a residential area. Then again, if we lease to him, he has a right to buy after five years." The outdoor theatre scheme, he said, planned on being able to park between 400 and 500 cars. The remainder of the council was asked by the reeve to think the matter over and to report at the next meeting. There are outdoor theatres at Burnaby and throughout the United States, it was reported. The council learned that a similar project was being considered at Langford.

The council approved of the Esquimalt Community Club request to stage its annual service at Esquimalt Memorial Park Nov. 11.

Appeals For Peace

NEW DELHI (CP)—Viscount Wavell, the Viceroy, appealed to Indians by radio Monday for an end to the communal strife which he said "now poisons life and disfigures the fair name of India."

Fire Hazard In Esquimalt Checked

That the fire chief was encountering difficulty in enforcing the Fire Marshal Act and the Municipal By-law with regard to fire hazards in the larger houses in the municipality converted into apartment and rooming houses, was reported to the Esquimalt Council Monday night. The reeve commented, "These places are running out of hand now," and the matter was referred to the municipal solicitor for a report "and to strike a by-law, if necessary." Conversions were being done without applying first for registration or licensing, it was noted.

Reeve Hadfield will interview the B.C.E.R. in regard to street-car stopping places in the municipality, as a result of numerous complaints on the question by individuals and groups of residents.

PAY BOOST REQUEST

After hearing the reading of a request from the outside employees of the municipality for an increase in salaries in view of the increased cost of living, the council decided to investigate the wages the same employees in the city and other municipalities before taking any action on the matter. Councillor J. A. Ellis, chairman of the public works department, noted "we did pay them an increase last January, but that has been wiped out by the higher cost of living."

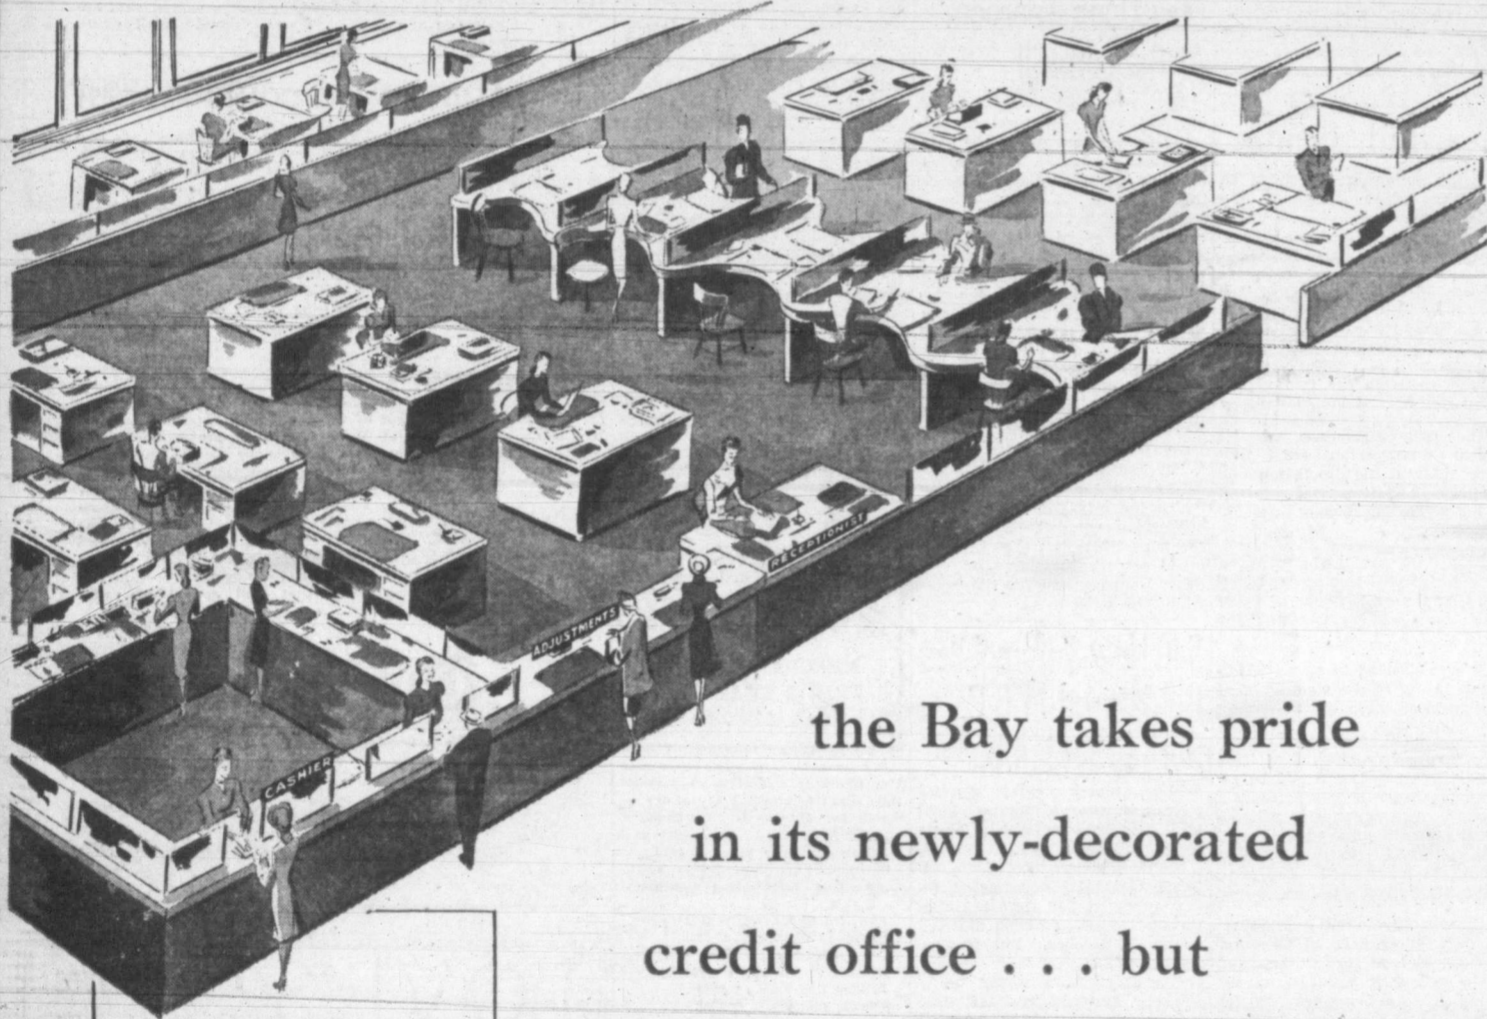

The reeve and Councillors Bishop and G. R. Guillemaud were appointed as the court of revision of the voters' list.

"The Esquimalt Athletic Hall, Fraser Street, is not a public hall owned by the municipality," Reeve Hadfield pointed out to put residents straight who were under the other impression and wished the council to fix the program for the hall this winter. "It was built partly by public subscription and finished by private money, but is not municipal-owned."

Shortage Of Defencemen As W.C.H.L. Teams Open Schedule

EDMONTON (CP) — Four clubs will face off tomorrow night as the opening gun is fired in the Western Canada Senior Hockey League with every sextet in the five-team loop still searching frantically for big, husky rearguards to bolster their defence.

Lethbridge Maple Leafs, new entry in the league this season, tangle with Edmonton Flyers in the capitol city, while Saskatoon Elks play host to the circuit's tall-enders of last year, Regina Caps.

The national champions, Calgary Stampede, start the long grind in defence of league honors and the coveted Allan Cup Nov. 2 on their home ice against Lethbridge.

A shortage of good defencemen caused sleepless nights for coaches around the loop as they groomed their charges for the 100-game schedule. Each club has 20 home contests, compared with 18 games last year and a total of 72 fixtures in the old four-team circuit.

RESIGNATION of Bobby Bell, field captain and hustling fullback of the Victoria United football team in the Coast League, following Saturday's match with St. Andrews, again leads one to believe that everything is running far from smooth in the city's number one soccer organization. In announcing he was all through with the inter-city club Bell stated and I quote: "When a football team has five managers I have had enough." Bell didn't enlighten the writer as to the five people he was referring to but it is a pretty safe bet the three members of the selection committee and manager Ralph Cosier are four of those in question. The fifth individual is beyond my power to pick out.

FROM what I was led to understand at the start of the season the set-up for the United was that the three committee members would select the players for the United and Cosier was to be in complete charge of the personnel in his position of manager. From what the players tell me such is far from the case. And furthermore unless some drastic action is taken and taken fast additional players will be quitting the Coast League club. If Cosier is manager of the club he should make the decisions regarding substitutions and have complete authority in the selection of the club for each match. I noticed on Saturday that the decision to send Tommy Druce up from right fullback to centre-forward was relayed to Druce by one of the committee members giving instructions to one of the other players. As a matter of fact the official walked on to the field to talk to the player. That's against the rules.

SINCE early in the season the United club has not been blessed with harmony among the players. Just who is at fault is not for me to say, but those in charge of the club must certainly realize by this time that everything is not right and take steps to remedy the situation. This city has the material to make up a good Coast League entry and I agree with many of the fans that the best possible eleven is not being stripped. The many supporters of the club have yet to experience the pleasure of seeing the team mark up its first victory.

CITY's baseball followers received some nice off-season news yesterday with the announcement that our Athletics have signed a working agreement for the next season with the New York Yankees organization. Such a move guarantees this city of having a first-class Western International League entry next season. There is no guarantee we will come up with a winner but it's a mighty safe bet Victoria will not end up in the cellar. The Yankees have a habit of seeing their farm clubs finish no worse than in the first four. Just for reflection. The Yankees placed a championship team in Wenatchee in the W.I.L. before the league folded owing to the war. Although no announcement has been made as to who will be manager of the Athletics next year it is worth noting that Ted Norbert, who took over the team near mid-season last year, spent considerable time at the head office of the Yankees in New York while en route to Puerto Rico at the close of the season. Form your own conclusions.

Washington Huskies Smother Bears

University of California men were there in number on a first-period fumble by Otele, fullback of Washington. California recovered but to no avail as Washington took over two downs later, which led to a touchdown. In the play are California's Peeper (38), Turner (68), Doerr (52), Dadds (32) Sokolov (53); Washington's Hatch (47), Austin (11), Bruce (21), Meyers (49). Score was 20-0-6 for Washington, giving the Huskies an even record in conference play with two wins, two losses, while Golden Bears have absorbed three beatings in conference play.

Youthful K.V.'s Give Dominoes Tough Time

Forced to the limit in the final quarter by a fighting bunch of K.V.'s hoopers, the Dominoes opened the 1946 season by edging out Harold Turner's youngsters 41 to 34 in one of the roughest games of the season to date.

Producing little in the way of good basketball, the contest between these two rivals at times became heated, and referees Bob Malcolm and Harry Zaruk had their hands full in keeping the game under control.

Dominoes opened up quickly, and by the end of the first quarter were enjoying a 13 to 4 lead. K.V.'s, led by Fred Ranson, came back strongly to match the champions' 10 points in the second canto and leave them nine points down at the breather.

Fighting back doggedly in the second half, K.V.'s whittled down the lead to three points with but six minutes to go. Johnny Clark, Dominoes newcomer then dropped through two free shots, followed it by a hoop to give the champions a seven-point margin. Wright and Andrews came up with two baskets to match the final scoring spurt of Baxter and McCaghey, and the game ended seconds later.

NAVY WINS
Royal Canadian Navy edged out MacDonald's 30 to 28 in a senior B match, that saw most of the action confined to the final period. Bill Page of the losers was the best player on the floor as he racked up 14 points.

With Helen Pettigrew turning in a smart scoring display to tally 22 points, Wally Yeaman's Eagletles had little trouble in trouncing Bob Whyte's Comets in a girls tilt, 38 to 25.

Teams and scores follow:
K.V.'s-Baxter 2, Ranson 11, McCaghey 2, Stewart 2, Castner 7, McKay 5, Anderson 2, Chung-granes, Ferris 3.

Canadiens-Toronto Start Another Feud

Unless the guns in the latest feuding between the National Hockey League's two Canadian clubs are loaded with blanks, Montreal Canadiens may make movie stars of the Toronto Maple Leafs team they accuse of introducing wrestling on ice to hockey fans.

A novel twist was given the annual drum-beating last night when Frank Selke, manager of the Canucks, went the way of all other Leaf expatriates and turned on his old mates in a way that should harm neither team at the gate.

"They (the Leafs, no less) have been getting away with wrestling tactics on the defence," said Selke, adding that he was "going to try to get a movie" of Friday night's game between the two in Montreal to show as evidence.

The charge brought quick response from Conn Smythe, managing director of the Leafs, who credited his old cohort with having acquired a "third sight" in view of the fact that Canadiens and Leafs have yet to meet. But he didn't sound too mad about it.

The pattern seemed familiar, particularly when you hark back to the examples of other Leaf expatriates such as one Richard Irvin and one Murph Chamberlain when they started breathing the intoxicating Montreal air.

Six years ago, Irvin switched from Toronto to coach Montreal and simultaneously discovered his fair-haired Leafs were villains. All except Chamberlain, that is, who made the change with him and ever since has regarded his former teammates as fortresses to be stormed.

It all takes on the spirit of fun, if viewed in the light that the league somehow has a blank to fill in before its matches of the week-end and the next games Wednesday night.

SCORING STATISTICS
League statistics released today showed Billy (The Kid) Taylor, smooth-skating centre of Detroit Red Wings, in sole possession of first place among the league point-makers with a pair of goals and seven assists for nine points.

A three-way tie for second place has Maurice (Rocket) Richard, Montreal Canadiens winger, with five goals and an assist, Roy Conacher of Detroit with four tallies and two assists and Sid Abel, veteran Detroit forward, with three markers and three assists for six points.

Richard tops all other players in goals scored with five. The Rocket went on a scoring spree in Saturday's game against Detroit when he turned in the first hat trick of the season.

Frankie Brimsek, Boston Bruins' goalie, has allowed the least number of goals past him to lead the twine-keepers. In four games Mr. Zero has let in seven scores. Bill Durnan of Canadiens has registered the only shutout of the season thus far.

Hal Jackson, Detroit's aggressive defenceman, leads the toughies with a total of 17 minutes in the penalty box, made up of one major and seven minors. Toronto's Bill Ezelnicki is close on Jackson's heels for "bad man" honors with 15 minutes in the cooler.

The leaders follow:

May Create Film Studio In B.C. For Canadian Pictures

British Columbia may become the home of a studio for the production of Canadian full-length photoplays, according to Geoffrey H. Wood, president of Dominion Productions Ltd., now visiting Victoria.

Mr. Wood, whose company has just completed "Bush Pilot," the first Canadian full-length photoplay, said in an interview at the Empress Hotel that consideration was being given construction of a studio in B.C., Toronto or Montreal.

There would be many advantages to building a studio here, he said. The weather is an important factor and, in addition, a B.C. studio would mean the company was closer to Hollywood, from where it must draw some of the technical staff and leading actors.

"Bush Pilot," which was written by Scott Darling, Hollywood, was filmed completely in Canada with cast and technicians made up largely of Canadians.

VICTORIA STAR

Playing an important role in the film is Louise Campbell, a Victoria girl who is now a Toronto model.

Altogether, 50,000 feet of film were used for "Bush Pilot." Initial scenes were taken at Rosseau in the Muskokas north of Toronto. Other scenes were shot in the Laurentian Mountains.

Larry Cromien was the producer and Sterling Campbell the director. Leading male role was played by Austin Willis, of Halifax. Mr. Willis was also casting director for the film.

Because of the careful, detailed work required in film production and to protect the company's interests, all top technical men were brought in from Hollywood.

They'll Do It Every Time

Mr. Wood said. These included Jack Ogilvie, film editor and associate producer, and a director of sound, director of photography, production manager and make-up man.

Music was composed especially for "Bush Pilot" by Samuel Hershoren and played by a 26-piece all-Canadian orchestra.

At present one print of the picture is in the Johnson-Hays office in Hollywood where all the company films will be sent for censoring prior to U.S. distribution.

Another print was flown to England a week ago. A third print is now being filmed for U.S. and Canadian distributors in Toronto, New York and later, Hollywood.

CANADIAN STORIES

Future production of Canadian films will include purchase of Canadian stories which will be filmed against the natural background of Canada.

"Bush Pilot" was produced at a total cost of $200,000, but Mr. Wood said future productions would cost $500,000 to $1,000,000. The next production, it is understood, will be called "Hi-Jackers" and deals with illicit gold-running from Canadian mines.

(1) In the decade following the Wright brothers' success, air pioneers hastened to find practical uses for the new mode of transportation. The Wrights demonstrated their plane's possibilities as an express carrier in 1910 by flying 70 pounds of Rajah silk from Dayton to Columbus in Ohio. The shipping cost was $71.42 per pound! The proud aircraft carriers, so important in the recent war, had their inception in 1910, when Eugene Ely made the first shipboard take-off from the U.S. cruiser Birmingham at Hampton Roads. He completed the experiment the next year by landing on the battleship Pennsylvania in San Francisco.

Air mail was inaugurated by Earl Ovington in the Bleriot monoplane Dragonfly, on a week's trial basis, between Nassau Boulevard and Mineola, Long Island, New York, in 1911.

Chairman Praises Dependents' Board Voluntary Workers

The five years of voluntary work of the Victoria Dependents' Board was praised Monday night at a meeting in the Union Club by Jack Pembroke, C.B.E., national chairman of the Dependents' Board of Trustees.

Mr. Pembroke said the national board, created in 1942 to grant aid in emergencies to dependents of members of the services, had granted a total of $11,596,000 and had received 351,000 applications.

The Victoria Dependents' Advisory Committee, which finished its work at the end of August this year, handled 11,181 applications and made grants totaling $671,654.

Mr. Pembroke thanked member organizations which aided the Victoria board in its work, including the Family Welfare Bureau, the Provincial Welfare Bureau, the Soldiers' Settlement, and the R.C.M.P. He expressed particular gratitude, on behalf of the National Defence Minister, to the chairman of the Victoria committee, F. E. Winslow, O.B.E., and his aides, Mrs. F. W. Hartley, G. H. Mr. Pembroke also commended Miss H. L. P. L'Amie, secretary, and Mrs. F. E. Mutrie, former secretary.

Ceiling Prices Given Boost On Shingles Produced Here

Commenting on the Prices Board announcement of increases in manufacturers' and wholesalers' ceiling prices for British Columbia red cedar, as announced from Ottawa today, Victoria retailers said prices now will be terrifically high for certain types of shingles.

The Ottawa announcement said the raise in ceiling prices would boost retail ceiling prices approximately 20 to 25 cents a bundle. So far, however, Prices Board has not announced a change in ceilings for retail merchants, except to mention that prices for shingles will be affected all along the line from the manufacturer, wholesaler to retailer.

As the order only applies to shingle manufacturers and wholesalers, retail merchants said that until prices are adjusted they will be obliged to sell shingles at present ceiling prices. It was also reported there was a danger of retail supplies of shingles being frozen until prices were adjusted.

in order to prevent selling at a loss. Victoria merchants said that although prices would be high on shingles they would have no difficulty in selling their product. "The great difficulty is getting the shingles," one retailer said. "We can sell our shingles even if prices are high."

The Ottawa announcement said the action was taken to offset in part the effect of recent wage increases and the higher cost of logs. Financial information submitted by the mills had shown the industry was operating at a loss as a result of increased costs. Officials said the shingle mills sold almost their entire production in Canada and the United States at controlled prices and consequently their situation was different from that of other sections of the West Coast lumber industry which were better able to offset wage and other increases by taking advantage of higher prices on the overseas markets.

Housing Enterprises Start 19 Homes Here

Housing Enterprises Ltd. have made application to the building inspector's department for permits for the first 19 of their projected 104 houses being built in the northern section of the city. Each of the first 19 houses is to be built on Alder Street, where services are already in. Each house is valued at $5,000.

The special meeting of the City Council in committee of the whole to discuss the terms of the Housing Enterprises contract with the city and hear representations from builders on the subject will be held Wednesday evening at 7.30.

Other building permits issued today were to Louis Nelson to build a five-room house at 810 Johnson Street, cost $5,000; to W. Colebank, 391 Irving Road, five-rooms, $6,300; and to B. Smith, 1735 Carrick Street, four-rooms, $5,000.

B.A. Oil Offers New Pension Plan

A. P. BENNETT

An employees' pension plan which encourages individual initiative and ambition, not merely length of service, has been instituted for all employees in Canada of The British American Oil Company Ltd., it was announced today by A. P. Bennett, divisional manager, B.C. division.

Local officials of the company said that the B.A. retirement income plan was developed at the request of the employees by the employees' associations. The plan has been established on a contributory basis, the company supplementing each employee's contribution, which has been fixed at a percentage of his salary or wage, and the more valuable an employee makes himself the higher his retirement annuity will become.

All contributions to the pension plan are returnable. An employee who leaves the company before retirement income is payable — at 65 for men and 60 for women — may withdraw all his or her contributions. If the employee has given six or more years of service, he also may be credited proportionately with the company's contributions. This credit is based on a sliding scale up to 100 per cent of the company's contributions for 15 years' service.

Retirement income is for life with a guaranteed minimum of five years' payments to ensure that a retired employee will receive on the average at least twice as much as he contributed. If death occurs within five years after retirement, the balance of payments for that period will be made in a lump sum to the retired employee's estate or heirs. Arrangements also have been made whereby an employee may retire on proportionately smaller pension 10 years or more before normal retirement age.

In addition to the retirement income plan, British American Oil will continue the group insurance it pays for, ensuring payment of a lump sum of money to each employee's family at his death. Present sickness and disability benefits for employees will also be kept in force.

Group To Petition For Milk Subsidy

The Labor Progressive Party has applied to Mayor Percy George for permission to circulate a petition, on downtown streets Saturday, asking that the two-cent subsidy on milk be restored.

Mayor George has referred the matter to the Chief of Police, and stated that he saw no reason why the petition should not be circulated on the streets.

In the petition it is stated that it would cost the provincial government $200,000 annually to maintain the subsidy and keep the price of milk at its former level. It is suggested that the funds could come from the annual liquor revenue "to maintain the health of our children and at the same time the standard of living of our farmers."

Minor Thefts

Douglas Flintoff, Pemberton Building, reported to city police Monday theft of a $100 camera. W. Crawford, 723 Wilson Street, reported theft of a brown, tweed overcoat with kid gloves at the K. of P. Hall dance Monday night. Phillip A. Wood, 1123 Princess Avenue, informed police that someone had stolen a wrist watch he had hung up while working at the Selkirk Lumber Co.

Mayor Percy George, Ald. Ed. Williams and Ald. B. J. Gadsden are in Vancouver today consulting with officials of War Assets Corporation on the purchase of 57.5 acres of naval property at Gordon Head. They will return to Victoria tomorrow.

1,318 Veterans Use $312,469 In Credit

Applications for re-establishment credit by 1,318 Vancouver Island war veterans were approved from Sept. 24 to Oct. 23, the Victoria office of the Department of Veterans' Affairs reported today. Credit paid by the office totaled $312,469 during the month.

Forty per cent of the ex-servicemen and women used their re-establishment credit for the purchase of furniture, and 22 per cent for the acquisition of a home. The remainder used the credit to reduce mortgages, repair and modernize homes, buy working capital, and to purchase business, tools and equipment, and the Dominion government insurance.

The monthly report of the Victoria office showed only 130 war veterans receiving out-of-work allowances, and 613 receiving allowances while awaiting returns from their own enterprises.

Savings Bonds Selling Rapidly

Canada's Savings Bond sales in B.C. to date total $7,154,200. Over $3,300,000 worth of bonds have been sold in Victoria, while first returns from Duncan estimate bond sales of over $200,000. Personnel of Caguelletta Hospital at Sardis have exceeded 9th Victory Loan purchases which totaled $10,050, it was reported.

Sheep Breeders Ask Subsidy On Wool

A delegation from the B.C. Sheep Breeders' Association met Agriculture Minister Frank Putnam Monday asking that the provincial government this year renew the 2-cent-a-pound subsidy on wool granted in 1945.

The minister assured the delegation the question would be considered. Members of the delegation were S. H. Baker, secretary, and William Harrison, president. Headquarters of the association is in Kamloops.

Department To Name Drama Director Soon

Education Minister G. M. Weir said today several applications have been received for the post of director of school and community drama in the education department and they would be considered in due course but no appointment could be expected for six weeks to two months.

The post was left vacant with the retirement of Maj. L. Bullock-Webster, Sept. 30, on superannuation.

Stabbing, Burning, Looting Mark Continued Riots In East Bengal

CALCUTTA (AP)—Stabbing, burning and looting marked continued Hindu-Muslim strife today as Mohandas K. Gandhi, Hindu spiritual leader, neared the city on his way to troubled East Bengal.

Bows and arrows were among the weapons used in the latest communal violence in Calcutta. In the disturbed Noakhali and Tippera districts of East Bengal where Gandhi is going, however, reports told of people returning home slowly under military and police protection and being given food, clothing and medical supplies.

Government sources here said that during the first 14 days of October more than 800,000 persons were dependent on the Bengal government for some form of aid as a result of disturbances in various sections.

Police rushed reinforcements today to the town of Sasor in southeastern Bombay Province following reports that 10 persons had been killed in an outbreak of communal rioting there.

Scattered violence continued, meanwhile, to take its toll in Bombay, where one person was slain and 27 others injured during the 24 hours ending at 11 a.m.

Overseas Appointments Reflect New Commonwealth Defence Plan

OTTAWA (CP)—A rough blueprint of postwar Canadian defence policy, organized both on Commonwealth and hemispheric lines, gradually is taking shape in international developments and army appointments emanating from Defence Headquarters.

Latest official indication of the policy was announced Monday night by Defence Headquarters that two of Canada's young war heroes have been chosen to enter staff colleges overseas, and that the Canadian military headquarters set-up in London is to be replaced by a liaison staff.

Retiring as Chief of Staff at C.M.H.Q. is Lt.-Gen. J. C. Murche, 51, C.B., C.B.E., a native of Edmundston, N.B., who will return to Canada shortly and retire from the army.

GOES FROM ONTARIO

He will be replaced, early next month, by Brig. Howard Douglas Graham, 48, D.S.O. and Bar, of Trenton, Ont., who becomes head of the army section of the Canadian Joint Liaison Staff. Under the new arrangements announced recently by Prime Minister Attlee, liaison officers will be posted in London and the capitals of each Dominion.

Dove-tailing with the liaison plan is the appointment of these three Canadian officers to military college overseas: 1. Brig. J. B. D. (Des) Smith, 35, D.S.O., of Ottawa and London, Ont., commandant of the Joint Services Staff College and the Canadian Staff College at Kingston, Ont., will enter the Imperial Defence College in England for a course of advanced study.

2. He will be succeeded in his R.M.C. post by Maj.-Gen. J. F. M. Whiteley, C.B., C.B.E., M.C., of the British Army.

3. Col. Dollard Menard, 33,

FIRST SINCE WAR

The year-long course at the Royal Military College—first postwar staff college in the Commonwealth—was opened under Brig. Smith last spring. Students from the British, Indian and United States armies and the R.C.A.F. are attending and it was stated that the course, while primarily of a military nature, was designed to "develop broadened views and inter-service co-operation."

One matter still holding up Canadian policy on defence is the extent to which Canada may have to participate in any military force set up by the United Nations. Previously it was announced that the Canadian navy would be trained to fight with either the British or United States fleets and that the R.C.A.F. staff college at Toronto would work in co-operation with other services and with the R.A.F. and United States Army Air Force.

Power Of Finance Controlling Press, Says British M.P.

LONDON (CP)—Labor Member Hayden Davies today opened a historic parliamentary debate on press freedom by saying that "the freedom of the press has been overruled, not by bad or unscrupulous journalists, but by the power of high finance."

Mr. Davies, a reporter for the Liberal afternoon tabloid, The Star, introduced a resolution calling for a government investigation of Britain's newspaper press.

The resolution was sponsored by many of the 23 newspapermen in Parliament.

Mr. Davies said that "from the inside we know more of the freedom of the press than anybody else—and for years we have watched this freedom being whittled away."

Arguing that it takes "at least £2,000,000 ($8,000,000) to found a newspaper in London, Mr. Davies said:

"The only freedom today is the freedom of the newspaper proprietors. They have the perfect closed shop with the highest entrance fee in industry."

The resolution is to be the subject of a "free vote" later.

Says United Nations Has Better Chance Than Late League

NEW YORK (AP)—"The United Nations' chances of success are greater than those of the old League of Nations were at any time," says Air Secretary Philip Noel-Baker, leader of the British delegation to the U.N. Assembly here.

Mr. Noel-Baker was in at the birth of the League of Nations and followed it through to its failure. He was chief of the British delegation to the Geneva-based prewar body.

To those who are skeptical of the United Nations' future, the veteran British diplomat has this to say:

"None of the big powers, such as Britain and France, were really behind the League. They

Distillery Records Checked By Police; 2 Held At Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police today started a check of documentary records in the offices of United Distillers Ltd. in connection with the two-month investigation of liquor export sales to the United States.

At police headquarters it was announced that Supt. Walter Mulligan, chief of the Criminal Investigation Bureau, headed a squad of officers, at the distillery, working under a warrant issued during the morning.

Investigators, who refused to be quoted, indicated the amount of liquor involved was estimated didn't think it would work from the very beginning.

"Another thing, the United States was not in the League, although it had been proposed by President Wilson. Russia was absent, too."

In comparison, Mr. Noel-Baker has this to say in favor of the United Nations:

FAVORABLE START

"The first United Nations' Assembly in London, in all technical ways, not only started where the League of Nations left off, but it was better."

"And, remember this: President Truman, Prime Minister Attlee, Secretary of State Byrnes and Foreign Minister Molotov speak with far more authority than anyone could speak in the early days of the League."

"The Russians have shown that they are loyal to the United Nations. They have declared time and again that they are behind the United Nations."

"We are having practical speeches here. They are constructive. We have seen in all speeches a unanimous desire for co-operation and understanding."

The British diplomat warned, however, against jumping to the conclusion that differences and arguments will not arise in the United Nations. Because of the democratic structure of the organization, such differences and arguments are bound to occur, he pointed out. But the task, he added, is to minimize them and not exaggerate them, with a value ranging from $1, at from 60,000 to 1,000,000 cases, 500,000 to $15,000,000. Details were refused until the investigation has been completed.

Two men have been arrested, charged with perjury in the printing of export price lists submitted to the Office of Price Administration in the United States.

TWO PRICE LISTS

The basis of the charge, police said, was that after prices had been fixed by the O.P.A., lists were produced which purported to be price lists in effect before the imposition of ceilings, in April, 1943.

It was reported here that the importer of Vancouver-made liquor involved in the case has headquarters in New York, but authorities have not disclosed the name of the firm.

The men arrested—Robert (Soup) Bracken, one-time wrestler and former owner of an east end print shop, and Oswald Thomas, present owner, will appear in court Friday for preliminary hearing. They are on bail of $2,500 each.

Arthur Perlman and H. L. Pruett, special agents with the O.P.A., have been working on the case for two months and now are in Vancouver.

Pensioners Ask B.C. To Increase Living Cost Bonus

A resolution, calling on the provincial government to increase immediately the cost of living bonus to old age pensioners, has again been forwarded to the provincial government by old age pensioners and citizens.

The resolution, framed at a meeting last week, calls on the provincial government to maintain the increased cost of living bonus until such time as an agreement is reached between the province and the Dominion to provide for a new and adequate basic rate of pension.

The same meeting, called by Victoria Branch No. 5 of the B.C. Old Age Pensioners' Organization, is forwarding another resolution to the Dominion government asking a measure be introduced during the next session of Parliament to provide for a pension of $50 per month at the age of 65 without a means test.

This resolution notes the present $30 a month pension "is totally inadequate to free old age pensioners from the fear of want or to sustain life in decency and comfort" and that the "government fully demonstrated its ability and willingness throughout the war years, not only to raise billions of dollars for the prosecution of the war, but at its close was also able to provide immense sums of money for the demobilization and rehabilitation of the armed forces, and for the institution of family allowances and approximately $1,000,000 for increased seasonal indemnities to all members of Parliament and the Senate."

A third resolution passed by the meeting and being forwarded to the Dominion government calls for the government to maintain price controls on all the essentials of life.

"Any further increase in the cost of necessities of life will work a very seriously increased hardship on old-age pensioners and all those in receipt of social assistance and other forms of government relief," said the resolution.

YORK THEATRE

"Wagon Wheels" might well be the theme song for PRC's cine-color feature, "The Caravan Trail," starring Eddie Dean, now playing at the York Theatre. In addition to this ever popular number Eddie sings three other ballads, "Crazy Cowboy Song," "You're Too Pretty to Be Lonesome" and "Ridin' to the Top of the Mountain."

RIO THEATRE

Jack Pierce, Hollywood's ace make-up expert, claimed he had the toughest job in his career aging Edward G. Robinson for climactic scenes in the Universal release, "Scarlet Street," in which Robinson and Joan Bennett are headlined with Dan Duryea. The new film is now at the Rio Theatre.

ATLAS THEATRE

William Powell has played lots of melodramatic screen roles, but few with the stinging sense of pace and the surprise story element of "The Hoodlum Saint," which is at the Atlas Theatre.

Back in his early stage days, Powell proved himself a master of vigorous melodramas by his success in such plays as "Within the Law" and "Sherlock Holmes."

ROYAL THEATRE

Warner Bros. "Night and Day," technicolor musical film based on the career of Cole Porter, currently playing at the Royal Theatre, is one of the most lavish productions to be made in Hollywood since the war's end. Encompassing a wide range of dramatic and musical sequences highlighted by an exceptional score, the film was chosen by Warner as one of the gala anniversary films.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Walt Disney's new technicolor feature, "Make Mine Music," now at the Capitol Theatre, has Nelson Eddy singing the voice of "Willie the Whale," as a marvelous mammal who sings solos, duets, sextets and even a 100 voice chorus, all carefully blended variations of Eddy's own voice; Dinah Shore sings the ballad-ballet number, "Two Silhouettes," and the Andrews Sisters do the love story of two hats, "Johnny Fedora and Alice Blue Bonnet."

No Censorship

LONDON (CP)—Two Conservatives asked in the Commons Monday why the Sunday Pictorial had printed a picture of Hermann Goering's corpse after the government had requested all newspapers, as a matter of taste, to suppress the Nuernberg pictures. Replying, Prime Minister Attlee said: "I can express a wish, but I have no control over"

My Rheumatic Pains Have Practically Left Me

Here is a saline treatment for the relief of rheumatic pains, which helped this Liverpool woman so much, that she wrote this letter of thanks:—"For years I have suffered from rheumatic pains. My general health was gradually failing too, when I was given the tip to try Kruschen Salts. I got a small bottle and after taking it for about a week, the pain, which had often kept me awake at night, gradually subsided. Now—when I am on my second bottle—my health has improved and the rheumatic pain is negligible."—Mrs. H. H.—Liverpool

After obtaining relief from the first bottle of Kruschen, you can imagine how hopefully Mrs. H. H. started on the second. So follow her example if rheumatic pains are bothering you. Start taking the Kruschen saline treatment at once and continue until you give it a fair chance to help you. Like Mrs. H. H. you should soon feel improvement, because Kruschen is a combination of several mineral salts which aid the organs of elimination and in this way leads toward improvement in health and ease from rheumatic pains. Thousands have been benefited by taking Kruschen. Give it a trial in your own case.

Kruschen is 25c. and 75c. at all drug stores.
